NANTONG PLASTIC

Shaping a better living space

TAIZHOU NANTONG PLASTIC CO.,LTD.

About Us

Taizhou Nantong Plastic Co.,Ltd. is a professional production and processing company for household plastic products, baby products, medical supplies, etc. It has a complete and scientific quality management system. The integrity, strength and product quality of Taizhou Huangyan Nanxun Plastic Factory have been recognized by the industry.

The company's product range is complete, everything from home to household utensils and kitchen utensils. With the tenet of "Beyond Self and Creating the Future", the company hopes to develop together with the vast number of users; with the business philosophy of "reputation market, service creation and eternal", we carefully select and provide high quality products for users. "Professional, focused, timely, and thoughtful" is the service tenet. Provide users with satisfactory service.

Through years of operation and development, we have formed a good reputation among the users in the industry with "the products that make you feel at ease, let your satisfied price, let you touch the service", and have been widely recognized by the majority of users. At the same time, it has also formed close partnerships with well-known domestic and foreign manufacturers. In order to better serve the majority of users, the company will subdivide the products, so that our business personnel will have a more professional understanding of the products, better understanding of the industry's situation, and more timely and thoughtful service to users.

In the future development, the company will continue to open up new business areas and spaces as always, and take the enterprise spirit of "unity, hard work, pragmatism and innovation" as a guide to make positive contributions to the development of social economy.
